

WORK FROM HOME (WFH) POLICY

1. POLICY OBJECTIVES AND SCOPE

1.1 Purpose

This Work from Home (WFH) Policy establishes a framework to:

- Enable employees to work remotely under structured and controlled conditions
- Maintain business continuity and operational efficiency
- Ensure compliance with Indian labour laws and regulatory requirements
- Balance employee flexibility with organizational security and accountability
- Support work-life balance while maintaining productivity standards

1.2 Applicability

This policy applies to all employees of Gnapi Technologies Private Limited, including permanent staff, contract employees, and interns who meet the eligibility criteria outlined in Section 2.

1.3 Work Arrangements Covered

This policy covers:

- Full-Time Remote Work: Employees working entirely from a location other than company office
- Hybrid Work: Employees alternating between office and remote locations
- Ad-hoc Remote Work: Occasional work-from-home arrangements on a case-by-case basis

2. ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA AND EXCLUSIONS

2.1 Eligible Roles

The following roles/departments are eligible for WFH arrangements:

- Software developers and engineers
- QA and testing professionals
- Business development and sales roles
- Project managers and team leads
- HR and administrative personnel
- Finance and accounts team members
- Any role where physical presence is not operationally critical

2.2 Eligibility Requirements

Employees must meet the following criteria to be eligible for WFH:

- Completion of minimum 6 months of service with the organization (waived for Menstrual WFH provision)
- Satisfactory or above performance rating in the last appraisal cycle
- No active disciplinary action or performance improvement plan (PIP)
- Clear security clearance and compliance with company data security policies
- Demonstrated self-management and independent work capability

Note: Female employees aged 18-52 are eligible for Menstrual WFH regardless of tenure or performance rating, as this is a statutory entitlement.

2.3 Exclusions

The following roles/circumstances are NOT eligible for WFH:

- Administrative and reception staff (where physical presence is required)
- New joiners (within the first 6 months of employment)
- Employees undergoing onboarding, training, or skill development
- Employees with active performance issues or disciplinary procedures
- Roles involving client-facing operational activities requiring physical presence

- Employees explicitly identified as unsuitable for remote work by their manager

2.4 Discretionary Review

Management reserves the right to:

- Revoke WFH privileges if eligibility criteria are no longer met
- Modify arrangements based on project requirements or business needs
- Request employees to return to office with appropriate notice

3. WFH REQUEST PROCESS AND APPROVAL

3.1 Submission Requirements

Employees seeking WFH arrangements must submit a request to their immediate manager with the following information:

- Proposed start date and duration (daily, weekly, monthly frequency)
- Work location details (city, state, and home address)
- Reason for WFH request
- Plan to maintain productivity and communication
- Equipment and internet connectivity arrangements

3.2 Approval Authority

- Immediate Manager: First-level approval authority for all WFH requests
- Department Head: Review and approval for organization-wide coordination
- HR Department: Final verification of eligibility and policy compliance

3.3 Approval Timeline

- WFH requests must be submitted at least 5 working days in advance
- Managers will communicate approval/rejection within 3 working days of submission
- Once approved, employees must inform HR for record-keeping and system updates

3.3.1 Full-Time Remote Work Arrangement (From Office to Remote)

Employees currently working full-time from the office who request a permanent transition to full-time remote work arrangement must be aware of the following:

- Salary Adjustment: Upon management approval, full-time remote work will entail a 30% reduction from the current salary effective from the approval date
- Impact Assessment: HR and management will assess the business impact, role suitability, and cost-benefit of the arrangement before approval
- Approval Authority: Full-time remote work transitions require approval from the Department Head and senior management in addition to the immediate manager
- Documentation: All salary adjustments and approval details will be documented in the employment agreement amendment or a formal letter
- Reversibility: If an employee wishes to return to office-based work, salary restoration to original levels will be subject to management discretion and organizational requirements

3.3.2 Menstrual Work-From-Home Provision (Female Employees Aged 18-52)

Eligibility:

- Female employees aged 18-52 are entitled to avail monthly Menstrual WFH days (2 days per month)
- This benefit is in addition to regular paid leave entitlements
- Available to permanent employees, contract employees, and eligible outsourced staff

Request and Approval Process:

- Employees may submit requests for Menstrual WFH on a monthly basis.
- Requests should be submitted to the immediate manager and copied to HR at least 2-3 days in advance when possible
- For emergency or same-day requests, employees may use informal communication channels (email/teams) with notification to HR
- Approval is automatic for eligible employees; manager approval is for coordination purposes only (not discretionary denial)

Usage and Management:

- Menstrual WFH days do not count against regular leave entitlements (PL, SL)

- Employees should indicate the reason as "Menstrual WFH" in the HRM tool or leave request form
- These days are paid and will not result in salary deduction
- Unused Menstrual WFH days in a calendar month do not roll over to subsequent months

Confidentiality and Privacy:

- All Menstrual WFH requests are treated as confidential and private
- Managers and HR will not disclose or discuss details with colleagues or other teams
- Employees have the right to request WFH without providing personal or medical details

Communication and Deliverables:

- During Menstrual WFH days, employees are expected to:
 - Maintain communication availability during core working hours (10:00 AM - 5:00 PM IST)
 - Complete assigned tasks and maintain output quality
 - Participate in critical meetings (can use video or audio as preferred)
 - Submit daily status updates to their manager
- Non-critical meetings may be rescheduled or employee participation made optional at their discretion

3.4 WFH Request Limits and Restrictions

Annual WFH Request Limit:

- Employees are allowed a maximum of 12 (twelve) WFH request days per calendar year
- This annual limit excludes Menstrual WFH benefits for eligible female employees aged 18-52
- The 12-day annual limit applies to all non-menstrual WFH arrangements, including ad-hoc and planned WFH
- All WFH requests must be approved as per the approval process outlined in Section 3.2 and 3.3

WFH and PTO Mutual Exclusivity:

- Work From Home (WFH) requests cannot be combined with any vacation / paid time off (PTO) request for the same period
- Specifically, employees cannot apply for WFH on the working day(s) immediately before the vacation start date and immediately after the vacation end date
- This restriction prevents employees from extending holidays by clustering WFH days adjacent to planned vacations

- Employees must choose either to apply for WFH or to apply for leave (PTO/vacation) for any given working day, but not both

3.5 Conditions of Approval

Approval is conditional upon:

- Satisfactory completion of assigned work during WFH period
- Adherence to all communication and productivity standards
- Compliance with data security and confidentiality requirements
- No impact on client deliverables or team operations
- Adherence to the annual WFH request limit (12 days, excluding menstrual WFH)
- No combination with vacation/PTO requests as outlined in Section 3.5

4. WORKING HOURS AND AVAILABILITY

4.1 Standard Working Hours

Remote employees are required to work the same working hours as office-based employees:

- Standard work hours: 9:00 AM to 6:00 PM IST (or as per employment agreement)
- Total working hours: 8.5 hours per day (including 30-minute lunch break)
- Five-day work week (Monday to Friday)

4.2 Flexibility and Core Hours

- Employees may adjust start/end times within organizational guidelines, subject to manager approval
- Core working hours: 10:00 AM to 5:00 PM IST (when all team members must be available)
- Flexibility should not exceed ± 1 hour from standard working hours without explicit approval

4.3 Availability Expectations

Remote employees must:

- Remain available and responsive during working hours on all communication platforms
- Participate in mandatory team meetings as scheduled
- Attend client meetings and calls as required

- Complete daily status updates or progress reports as per manager instructions
- Respond to emails/messages within 1 hour during core working hours (for urgent matters)

4.4 Break and Rest Periods

- Employees are entitled to public holidays as per employment agreement
- Lunch breaks and short breaks can be taken in adherence to the company policy.
- Extended breaks (>30 minutes) must not interfere with working hours

5. COMMUNICATION AND COLLABORATION

5.1 Communication Tools

Remote employees must use the following platforms for communication:

- Primary: Slack or Microsoft Teams (instant messaging and status updates)
- Meetings: Microsoft Teams or Google Meet (video conferencing)
- Email: Official company email for formal communications
- Project Management: Jira, or similar tools (task tracking and documentation)

5.2 Communication Protocols

- Employees must maintain "Available" status on messaging platforms during working hours
- Daily standups: Attendance is mandatory for all remote employees
- Video calls: Cameras should be on during client meetings and important discussions
- Response expectations: Acknowledge received messages within 1 hour during working hours
- Email: Formal documentation and requests should be communicated via email
- Out-of-office notifications: Must be set when unavailable (leave, medical, urgent matters)

5.3 Meeting Participation

- Attendance at scheduled team meetings, client meetings, and training sessions is mandatory
- Remote employees must have appropriate background and attire for video calls
- Distractions during video calls should be minimized
- Meeting notes and action items must be documented and shared

5.4 Documentation and Reporting

- All work progress must be documented in project management tools
- Daily/weekly status reports must be submitted as required by the manager
- Deliverables must be clearly tracked and communicated
- Time-tracking and task management tools may be used to monitor productivity

5.5 Client Communication

Once WFH approval is confirmed, the employee is responsible for:

- Informing assigned clients/stakeholders of their remote work arrangement
- Ensuring no disruption to client communication and project delivery timelines
- Maintaining professional communication standards with external stakeholders
- Providing accurate updates on project progress and availability

6. PERFORMANCE AND PRODUCTIVITY MANAGEMENT

6.1 Performance Expectations

Remote employees are expected to:

- Meet all project deadlines and deliverables
- Maintain the same quality standards as office-based employees
- Complete assigned tasks independently and proactively
- Participate actively in team activities and meetings
- Communicate progress transparently with the manager

6.2 Performance Monitoring

Performance will be assessed based on:

- Output quality: Adherence to quality standards and project specifications
- Timeliness: Completion of deliverables within agreed timelines
- Communication: Responsiveness and clarity in team communication
- Collaboration: Participation in team activities and knowledge sharing

- Accountability: Ownership of assigned tasks and proactive problem-solving

Note: Monitoring will focus on output and deliverables, not surveillance of work hours or keystroke tracking.

6.3 Productivity Metrics

- Task completion rates and quality metrics
- Client feedback and satisfaction scores
- Project delivery timelines
- Peer and manager feedback on collaboration
- Professional development and skill enhancement

6.4 Performance Issues

If performance declines during WFH arrangement:

- Manager will conduct a review discussion with the employee
- Improvement plan or corrective action may be required
- WFH privileges may be temporarily suspended or revoked
- Transition to office-based or hybrid arrangement may be mandated

7. TECHNOLOGY, EQUIPMENT, AND INTERNET REQUIREMENTS

7.1 Equipment Provision

The company will provide the following to eligible remote employees:

- Laptop meeting minimum specifications (or equivalent computing device)
- External monitor, keyboard, and mouse (upon request)
- VPN access and security software licenses
- Productivity software (Microsoft 365, project management tools)

7.2 Equipment Responsibility

- Employees are responsible for the safe custody of company-provided equipment

- Equipment must be returned to the company immediately upon termination or end of WFH arrangement
- Damage or loss due to negligence may result in cost recovery from the employee
- Personal devices may be used only with explicit approval and full security compliance

7.3 Internet Connectivity Requirements

Employees must ensure:

- Minimum internet speed: 50 Mbps download and 20 Mbps upload for seamless video conferencing
- Reliable connection: Backup internet connection (mobile hotspot or alternative ISP) recommended
- Network security: Use of company VPN for all company work and data access
- Stability: Minimal disconnections and network downtime during working hours

7.4 Work-from-Home Setup

Employees must maintain:

- Dedicated workspace: A quiet, professional area for work (not shared common spaces)
- Ergonomic setup: Proper desk, chair, and monitor positioning to prevent health issues
- Secure environment: Physical security to prevent unauthorized access to company information
- Professional background: Appropriate for video calls and client meetings

7.5 Software and Security Compliance

All remote employees must:

- Install and maintain updated antivirus and security software
- Use VPN (Virtual Private Network) for all company data access
- Enable two-factor authentication (2FA) on all company accounts
- Keep systems patched and updated with latest security releases
- Comply with all data security and confidentiality policies

7.6 Technology Support

- IT support will be available during working hours for technical issues
- Remote employees can contact IT helpdesk via email, phone, or ticketing system

- Critical issues will be resolved on priority basis
- Equipment failures must be reported immediately

8. DATA SECURITY, CONFIDENTIALITY, AND COMPLIANCE

8.1 Data Security Requirements

Remote employees must:

- Access company data only through authorized VPN connections
- Use encrypted storage for sensitive information (encrypted external drives, cloud storage with encryption)
- Never store company data on personal devices or unencrypted locations
- Implement screen locks and automatic logout on work devices
- Use strong, unique passwords for all company accounts
- Enable biometric authentication (fingerprint, face recognition) where available

8.2 Confidentiality Obligations

Employees working remotely must:

- Maintain strict confidentiality of all company and client information
- Not disclose any proprietary information to unauthorized persons
- Not discuss company/client matters in public spaces or on unsecured communication channels
- Protect all physical documents and ensure proper disposal of sensitive materials
- Not take photos or recordings of company information without authorization

8.3 Data Access Controls

- Access to company data is restricted to authorized employees only
- Employees may access data relevant to their assigned roles
- Unauthorized access or sharing of data will result in disciplinary action
- Regular audits will be conducted to ensure compliance

8.4 Compliance with Regulations

Remote employees must comply with:

- Information Technology Act, 2000 (data protection and cybersecurity)
- Personal Data Protection Bill and data privacy regulations
- Industry-specific compliance requirements (ISO, SOC 2, GDPR if applicable)
- Company-specific security policies and standards

8.5 Health and Safety at Home

- Employees are responsible for maintaining a safe and ergonomic home workspace
- The company is not liable for accidents, injuries, or health issues occurring at home
- Employees should report any work-related health concerns to their manager and HR
- The company's health and safety policies extend to remote work environments

9. LEAVE AND ATTENDANCE

9.1 Leave Eligibility

Remote employees are entitled to the same leave benefits as office-based employees, including:

- Paid Leave (PL): As per employment agreement and leave policy
- Sick Leave (SL): For medical emergencies and health-related absences
- Maternity Benefit: As per company policy (for eligible female employees)
- Paternity Leave: As per company policy
- Public Holidays: As notified by the government and company calendar

9.2 Leave Request and Approval

- Leave requests must be submitted 2-3 days in advance (except emergency leave)
- Requests must be submitted through the HRM tool or email to the manager and HR
- Approval is subject to project requirements and team availability
- Sick leave may be requested with minimal notice in case of emergency

9.3 Attendance Tracking

- Attendance will be tracked through login/logout in the HRM tool
- Employees must mark attendance at the start and end of each working day using GPS login through mobile.

- Unauthorized absences will be treated as per company discipline policy
- Regular monitoring of attendance patterns will be conducted

9.4 Remote Work and Leave Interaction

- Remote work arrangements do not affect leave entitlements
- Leaves taken while on WFH arrangement are treated the same as office-based leaves
- Employees must inform manager and HR when taking leave during approved WFH period
- Remote work may be revoked during extended leave period

10. COMPLIANCE

10.1 Reporting and Documentation

- Employees must maintain accurate records of working hours and attendance
- Proof of WFH arrangement will be documented and maintained by HR
- Any change in work location must be reported to HR immediately

11. EQUIPMENT, ACCIDENTS, AND LIABILITY

11.1 Company Equipment

- Ownership: All company-provided equipment remains the property of Gnapi Technologies
- Maintenance: Employees are responsible for proper care and maintenance of equipment
- Repair and Replacement: Minor repairs will be covered by the company; major damages may be charged to the employee
- Return: Equipment must be returned within 3 working days of termination or end of WFH arrangement

11.2 Liability for Accidents and Injuries

- The company is not liable for accidents, injuries, or health issues not directly related to official work
- Reporting: Work-related accidents or injuries must be reported to HR immediately

11.3 Third-Party Liability

- Employees are responsible for any damage to third-party property caused by their work setup
- The company is not liable for internet disruptions due to ISP failures or other external causes

12. MONITORING, EVALUATION, AND POLICY REVIEW

12.1 Policy Monitoring

The company reserves the right to:

- Monitor compliance with this WFH policy
- Conduct regular check-ins on productivity and work quality
- Review communication and collaboration effectiveness
- Assess security compliance and data protection measures

12.2 Frequency of Review

This policy will be reviewed:

- Annually: To align with business requirements and legal changes
- As needed: In response to significant operational or legal changes
- After 6 months of implementation: Initial assessment for effectiveness

12.3 Policy Updates and Amendments

- Any amendments to this policy will be communicated to all employees
- Updated policies will be effective from the date specified in the notification
- Employees are required to acknowledge and comply with updated policies
- HR will provide training or clarification on any policy changes

12.4 Feedback and Suggestions

- Employees are encouraged to provide feedback on the WFH policy
- Suggestions for improvement should be submitted to HR
- Constructive feedback will be considered during policy reviews

13. DISCIPLINARY MEASURES AND POLICY VIOLATION

13.1 Policy Violations

Violations of this WFH policy may result in disciplinary action, including:

- Verbal warning: First-time minor violations
- Written warning: Repeated or serious violations
- Suspension of WFH privileges: Temporary or permanent revocation
- Suspension or termination: For serious breaches (data security, confidentiality, etc.)

13.2 Grounds for Disciplinary Action

- Repeated unauthorized absences or non-availability during working hours
- Failure to meet productivity standards or deliver quality work
- Breach of data security, confidentiality, or compliance requirements
- Misuse of company equipment or resources
- Insubordination or violation of company conduct policies
- Violation of communication or documentation standards

13.3 Disciplinary Process

- Employees will be given an opportunity to respond to allegations
- Disciplinary action will be taken based on investigation findings
- Appeals process is available as per company HR policy
- Records of disciplinary action will be maintained

14. TERMINATION AND SEPARATION

14.1 End of WFH Arrangement

When a remote work arrangement ends:

- Employees will be notified in writing of the effective date

- Reasonable notice period (minimum 15 days) will be provided for transition
- Employees must return all company equipment within the specified timeframe
- Offboarding process will be completed as per standard procedures

14.2 Employment Termination

Upon termination or resignation:

- WFH privileges automatically terminate
- All company equipment must be returned immediately
- Final settlement will include unpaid leave encashment (if applicable) as per company policy
- Separation will be processed in accordance with applicable labour laws

14.3 Equipment Return

- All company-provided equipment must be returned within 3 working days of separation
- Equipment will be checked for damage and functionality
- Delay in equipment return may result in deduction from final settlement
- Lost equipment will incur replacement cost deduction

15. SPECIAL CIRCUMSTANCES AND EXCEPTIONS

15.1 Relocation

Employees relocating to a different city/state must:

- Inform HR and manager at least 30 days in advance
- Obtain approval from manager before finalizing relocation
- Update WFH location details with HR
- Comply with tax and compliance requirements for the new location

15.2 Medical or Accessibility Needs

Employees with health conditions, disabilities, or caregiving responsibilities:

- May request WFH arrangements as a reasonable accommodation
- Should discuss with HR and provide supporting documentation if required

- Will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis
- May have different eligibility criteria than standard WFH requests

15.3 Critical Business Situations

In case of critical business needs or emergencies:

- The company may request remote employees to return to office
- Employees must comply with reasonable requests
- Notice period will be provided except in genuine emergencies

15.4 Force Majeure Events

In case of pandemics, natural disasters, or other unforeseen circumstances:

- WFH arrangements may be modified or extended by the company
- Employees will be informed of any temporary changes to this policy
- All salary and benefits will continue during force majeure events

16. ACKNOWLEDGMENT AND COMPLIANCE

All employees are required to:

- Read and understand this WFH policy
- Acknowledge receipt and acceptance of this policy
- Comply with all provisions outlined herein
- Seek clarification from HR on any ambiguous points
- Report any violations or concerns to their manager or HR

Failure to comply with this policy may result in disciplinary action as outlined in Section 13.

APPENDIX A: WFH REQUEST FORM

Employee Information:

- Name: _____
- Employee ID: _____
- Department: _____
- Manager Name: _____

WFH Details:

- Proposed Start Date: _____
- Duration: Daily / Weekly / Monthly / Other: _____
- Work Location (Full Address): _____

Work Setup Details:

- Internet Speed (Mbps): _____
- Equipment Details: _____
- Backup Internet Available: Yes / No
- Proposed Working Hours: _____

Reason for WFH: (Brief explanation)

Manager Approval:

- Manager Name: _____
- Approval Date: _____
- Signature: _____

HR Verification:

- HR Approval Date: _____
- Signature: _____

APPENDIX B: ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF POLICY

I acknowledge that I have read, understood, and agree to comply with the Work from Home Policy of Gnapi Technologies Private Limited.

Employee Name: _____

Employee ID: _____

Date: _____

Signature: _____

Gnapi Technologies Private Limited

Registered Office:

2-13, Road #4/3, Shanti Nagar,

Vanasthalipuram, Hyderabad - 500070

Gnapi Confidential

Version 1.0 | [Date] | This policy is subject to periodic review and amendment