Sick Leave Policy

Purpose:

The purpose of this policy is to provide employees with guidelines for availing sick leave while ensuring business continuity and preventing misuse. This policy aims to support employees during health-related absences while maintaining a fair and accountable system.

Details:

Eligibility:

- All full-time employees are eligible for sick leave upon completion of the probationary period.
- Part-time and contract employees may be granted sick leave based on specific terms outlined in their employment agreements.

Sick Leave Entitlement:

- Employees are entitled to 5 days of paid sick leave per calendar year.
- Sick leave may be availed for personal illness, medical appointments, or recovery from injuries.
- Unused sick leave cannot be processed for encashment or carried forward to next calendar year.
- In case of long-term medical conditions, employees may request additional leave, subject to management approval.

Procedure for Availing Sick Leave

- Employees must notify through an email to their manager and copy HR as soon as possible when taking sick leave.
- If sick leave exceeds 2 consecutive days, a medical certificate must be submitted upon return.

- Sick leave requests should be recorded in the company's leave management system.

Verification & Misuse Prevention

To ensure the fair use of sick leave, the following measures will be in place:

- HR will monitor patterns of sick leave usage (e.g., frequent absences on Mondays or Fridays).
- Availing sick leave immediately before or after vacation or holiday is to be avoided
- Medical documentation may be required for prolonged or repeated absences.
- Employees found misusing sick leave may face disciplinary action, including revocation of benefits or formal warnings.

Work from Home Consideration

- Employees experiencing minor illnesses that do not impair work performance may request to work remotely instead of availing sick leave, subject to manager approval only.

Long-Term Illness & Special Cases

- For extended illnesses requiring more than 10 consecutive days of leave, employees may apply for medical leave of absence, with appropriate documentation.
- In severe cases, employees may apply for unpaid leave beyond the sick leave entitlement.

Enforcement & Compliance

- HR and managers are responsible for ensuring compliance with this policy.
- Employees who fail to provide proper documentation or are found misusing sick leave will be subject to company disciplinary procedures.
